3 There are free of charge Preparedness Teams around the country that work with and support Oath Keepers and other like-minded Patriot organizations.

Join one and you'll immediately find out it's no joke.

2 They haven't been very visible so far this year.....unless I missed something.

▼ Proud boys, on the other hand, have been out on the streets since day 1.

4 You're making an apples to oranges comparison here though.

▼ Intentionally quiet to avoid added scrutiny isn't the same thing as uninvolved or uninterested nor the same as mass protesting and brawling. All good tactics are welcome though.

PB's do their own thing but aren't training their members with the same tactics as Patriot groups. Like I said, the PT's are free and open to all Patriots and if you join one you'll immediately find out how active and involved everyone is and always has been.

All Patriots are welcome to this party no matter how they work.

▼ No thanks necessary, Pede. We got each other's six. KAG! You can connect with anyone all the way up to 3%'ers if that's your goal.
